

LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL BRIEF

COMPETITION BILL

INTRODUCTION

A At the meeting of the Executive Council on 29 June 2010, the Council ADVISED and the Chief Executive ORDERED that the Competition Bill (the Bill), at Annex A, should be introduced into the Legislative Council (LegCo).

JUSTIFICATIONS

2. The Government's competition policy is to enhance economic efficiency and the free flow of trade through promoting sustainable competition to bring benefits to both the business sector and consumers. The existing approach of discouraging anti-competitive conduct through voluntary compliance by the business community with administrative guidelines has not been very effective in addressing continued public concerns about possible cases of anti-competitive conduct in Hong Kong. Due to the difficulty in mounting effective investigations into the complaints made to the Competition Policy Advisory Group (COMPAG)⁽¹⁾, the Government has been unable to determine whether certain anti-competitive conduct has taken place. Moreover, we could not impose appropriate sanctions for such conduct and deterrence of its recurrence, nor is there any mechanism for parties aggrieved by anti-competitive conduct to seek damages when a complaint is substantiated.

⁽¹⁾ The COMPAG chaired by the Financial Secretary was established in 1997 for examining, reviewing and advising on competition-related issues. In May 1998, the COMPAG promulgated the Statement on Competition Policy, which sets out the Government's approach to competition regulation and lays the basis for the existing regulatory regime. In September 2003, the COMPAG published guidelines aimed at advising businesses as to the types of practice that might constitute anti-competitive conduct.

KEY ELEMENTS OF THE BILL

3. The Bill has the following key elements.

(A) Scope

4. The objective of the Bill is to prohibit and deter ‘undertakings’ in all sectors from adopting abusive or other anti-competitive conduct which has the object or effect of preventing, restricting and distorting competition in Hong Kong. An ‘undertaking’ is defined as any entity, regardless of its legal status or the way in which it is financed, engaged in economic activity and includes a natural person engaged in economic activity. Each conduct of an entity has to be considered on its own merits, to decide whether it amounts to an ‘economic activity’ and thus falls within the scope of the Bill. As activities of the public sector are almost invariably non-economic in nature falling outside the scope of the Bill, the Bill will not bind the Government. Certain parts of the Bill (i.e. Part 2 (Conduct Rules), Part 4 (Enforcement powers of the Commission), Part 6 (Enforcement before Tribunal) and Schedule 7 (Mergers) (hereafter referred to as ‘non-applicable parts’ of the Bill’) will not apply to statutory bodies or their specified activities. For details, please refer to paragraph 14 below.

(B) General prohibitions of the new law

5. The Bill provides for general prohibitions in three major areas of anti-competitive conduct (described as the first conduct rule, the second conduct rule and the merger rule which are collectively known as the ‘competition rules’ in the Bill). The first conduct rule covers agreements, decisions and concerted practices. The second conduct rule covers the abuse of a substantial degree of market power in a market. The Bill regulates business conduct which has the object or effect of preventing, restricting or distorting competition in Hong Kong, including those conduct engaged in places outside Hong Kong. In other words, the conduct itself, or ‘per se’, would not be a contravention of the Bill, without such object or effect. To enhance the certainty and clarity of the law, the Bill will include a non-exhaustive list of examples of anti-competitive conduct to supplement the conduct rules, and will make it a statutory requirement for the Competition Commission (see paragraph 7 below) to draw up regulatory guidelines on the interpretation and implementation of the conduct rules in consultation with such persons as it considers appropriate.

6. In addition to the first and second conduct rules in paragraph 5 above, there would be a prohibition against mergers or acquisitions (described as the merger rule) applying only to carrier licenses granted by the Telecommunications Authority (TA) that have, or are likely to have the effect of substantially lessening competition in Hong Kong. Whilst the provision will maintain the existing control over mergers and acquisitions available under the Telecommunications Ordinance (TO), the merger control will be modernized in light of development of merger rule in other competition jurisdiction and adjusted to cater for possible extension to a cross-sector regulation after a review of the effect of the Bill to be conducted in a few years.

(C) Institutional framework

7. The Bill provides for a judicial enforcement model. First, an independent statutory Competition Commission (the Commission) will be established to investigate and bring proceedings before the Competition Tribunal (see paragraph 8 below) in respect of anti-competitive conduct either on receipt of complaints, on its own initiative, or on referral from the Government or a court. Details of the Commission's investigatory powers are given in paragraphs 10 and 11 below. Other functions of the Commission include promoting public understanding of the competition law, advising the Government on competition matters and deciding upon the application for exemptions from the application of the competition law, etc. The Commission, led by a Chairperson, will consist of not less than five members (including the Chairperson) appointed by the Chief Executive (CE). The executive arm of the Commission will be headed by a Chief Executive Officer appointed by the Commission with the approval of the CE. The Commission will be subject to regulation under the Prevention of Bribery Ordinance, the Ombudsman Ordinance and value-for-money audit by the Director of Audit. The Bill also contains provisions on the governance of the Commission, including its meeting procedures and financial management.

8. Further, a Competition Tribunal (the Tribunal) will be established within the Judiciary as a superior court of record to hear and adjudicate competition cases brought by the Commission, private actions as well as reviews of determination of the Commission⁽²⁾. The Tribunal will be empowered to apply a full range of remedies (details given in paragraph 12 below). Decisions of the Tribunal are, subject to leave of the Court of Appeal (CA), reviewable in appeals to the CA. Every judge of the Court of First Instance (CFI) will, by virtue of his or her appointment as CFI Judge, be a member of the Tribunal. The CE will, on the recommendations of the Judicial Officers Recommendation Commission, appoint one of the members of the Tribunal to be the President of the Tribunal. The President may appoint one or more members of the Tribunal to hear and determine an application made to the Tribunal. The Tribunal may appoint assessors to assist in proceedings. The Tribunal is to conduct its proceedings with as much informality as is consistent with attaining justice. It may also decide its own procedures and may, so far as it thinks fit, follow the practice and procedure of the CFI in the exercise of its civil jurisdiction.

9. To reconcile the new law with the existing competition regulatory framework in the broadcasting and telecommunications sectors, the Bill provides that the Broadcasting Authority (BA) and the TA will have concurrent jurisdiction with the Commission in respect of the investigation and bringing of enforcement proceedings of competition cases in the broadcasting and telecommunications sectors, while their

⁽²⁾ Determinations of the Commission which are reviewable by the Tribunal are decisions made by the Commission in respect of :

- (i) exemptions or exclusions for agreement(s), conduct(s) or merger(s);
- (ii) rescission of a decision regarding exemptions or exclusions for agreement(s), conduct(s) or merger(s);
- (iii) variation of a commitment made by undertaking(s) to take or refrain from taking certain action to address the Commission's concerns about a possible contravention of a competition rule;
- (iv) release of undertaking(s) from a commitment to take or refrain from taking certain action to address the Commission's concerns about a possible contravention of a competition rule; and
- (v) termination of a leniency agreement.

existing adjudicative function will be transferred to the Tribunal. To ensure co-ordination and clarity in the exercise of the concurrent jurisdiction, the Bill provides that the Commission, the BA and the TA will enter into a Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) which will be published.

(D) Enforcement by the Commission

10. The Commission will be vested with investigatory powers including the power to require production of documents and information and attendance before the Commission to give evidence, power to enter and search premises as well as power to seize and retain evidence and property under a court warrant, etc. The Commission must have reasonable cause to suspect that a contravention of any of the competition rules has taken place, is taking place or is about to take place before exercising its investigative powers. Non-compliance with the Commission's investigative power in the absence of reasonable excuse will be subject to criminal penalties.

11. The Bill will provide for a two-tier commitment mechanism under which the Commission will be empowered to –

- (i) accept commitments from a person to take or refrain from taking certain action to address the Commission's concerns about a possible contravention of a competition rule; and
- (ii) after its investigation and before bringing proceedings to the Tribunal, issue an infringement notice bearing a sum of payment of up to HK$10 million to a person allegedly contravening or having contravened the conduct rule. The notice may also require the person to take or refrain from taking certain action to address the Commission's concerns about a possible contravention of a conduct rule, in exchange for the Commission's commitment to cease its investigation and / or not to institute or continue with proceedings against the person. Infringement notice and the sum of payment imposed by the Commission are consensual. The Bill will also empower the Commission to enter into leniency agreements with persons who have allegedly contravened the conduct rules in exchange for their cooperation in the Commission's investigation and bringing enforcement proceedings before the Tribunal in respect of other parties involved in the same contravention. The Commission will not institute or continue with proceedings for a pecuniary penalty in respect of a contravention of a conduct rule against those with which it has reached leniency agreements.

(E) Remedies

12. The Tribunal will be empowered to apply a full range of remedies for contravention of a competition rule. These include pecuniary penalties not exceeding 10% of the turnover (including global turnover) of the undertaking(s) in breach of the competition rule for the year in which the contravention occurs; award of damages to aggrieved parties; interim injunction during investigations or proceedings; termination or variation of an agreement or merger; and disqualification orders against directors and others who have contributed to the contravention of the competition rule. The Tribunal can only impose pecuniary penalty on application by the Commission.

(F) Allowing rights of private action

13. In addition to public enforcement through the Commission, the Bill also provides for private actions to be brought by persons who have suffered loss or damage as a result of a contravention of a conduct rule. Such private actions could either follow on from a determination of the Tribunal, the CA or the Court of Final Appeal that the conduct is a contravention of a conduct rule, or could be 'stand-alone' actions seeking a judgment on particular conduct and remedies. The CFI will be empowered to make determinations on alleged contravention of the conduct rules in cases involving composite claims made under the Bill and those claims which are not made under the Bill.

(G) Exemptions and exclusions

Non-application of the Bill to statutory bodies

14. It is our policy decision not to apply the competition rules of the Bill to statutory bodies as the activities of the public sector are almost invariably non-economic in nature falling outside the scope of the Bill. Specifically, the Bill will provide that the non-applicable parts of the Bill will not apply to them or their activities except those statutory bodies or their activities specified in regulations to be made by the Chief Executive in Council (CE in Council). These regulations will be made by the CE in Council only after the commencement of the relevant empowering provisions in the Bill. The following criteria will be provided in the Bill to serve as the basis for determining which statutory body or its specified activities should be caught by the Bill –

- (a) the statutory body is engaging in an economic activity in direct competition with another undertaking;
- (b) the economic activity of the statutory body is affecting the economic efficiency of a specific market;
- (c) the economic activity of the statutory body is not directly related to the provision of an essential public service or the implementation of public policy; and
- (d) there are no other exceptional and compelling reasons of public policy against making such a regulation.

Exclusion and exemption mechanism under the Bill

15. Following practices in other overseas competition jurisdiction, the Bill will provide that the first conduct rule and/ or the second conduct rule will not apply to any agreement that enhances or would be likely to enhance overall economic efficiency, or any agreement to the extent that it is made to comply with a legal requirement, or any undertaking entrusted by the Government with the operation of services of general economic interest. Undertakings can assess their agreements or conduct in accordance with the general exclusions from conduct rules provided in Schedule 1 of the Bill. The Commission will be empowered to decide, in response to an application, as to whether or not an agreement or conduct is excluded or exempt from the conduct rules in accordance with these criteria. If the Commission decides that the agreement or conduct is excluded or exempt from the conduct rules, such agreement or conduct will be immune from both public enforcement actions and private actions.

16. Further, the Bill will empower the CE in Council to make orders to exempt agreements or conducts from the conduct rules if the CE in Council is satisfied that there are exceptional and compelling reasons of public policy that the conduct rules ought not to apply. The Bill will also empower the CE in Council to make orders to exempt agreements or conducts from the application of the conduct rules if the agreements or conducts are required to avoid a conflict with international obligations.

17. As for the exclusion and exemption mechanism for mergers of licensees whose licenses are granted by the TA, the Bill will provide that the merger rule will not apply to any merger that enhances or would be likely to enhance overall economic efficiency. The CE in Council may also make orders to exempt a merger from the merger rule on public policy ground.

(H) Immunities for public officers and Commission and other issues

18. The Bill will provide protection from civil liabilities to public officers for anything done or omitted to be done by the public officers in good faith in the performance of a function or purported performance of a function under the Bill. Similar immunities will be provided for Commission members and employees. The Bill will also require the Commission (including the TA and the BA) to follow strict conditions on the disclosure of confidential information provided to it by complainants or persons under investigation. The Bill will also protect employees from abuse and punishment by their employers for assisting the Commission in the performance of its functions or giving evidence.

PUBLIC CONSULTATION

(A) Public consultation

22. In 2006, we conducted a consultation exercise to gauge public views on the introduction of a cross-sector competition law to be enforced by an independent Competition Commission. Feedback from the public indicated a high level of support but the business sector had some concerns on the effect that a new competition law might have on business, especially the small and medium sized enterprises (SMEs). In 2008, we launched another public consultation on the proposed key elements that will form the basis of the competition law, including: the regulatory structure; conduct to be prohibited; penalties that would apply for infringing the law; the right to take private legal action; and criteria and mechanisms for granting exemptions and exclusions from the application of the competition law. Over 170 submissions were received. An overwhelming majority expressed general support for the law and proposed detailed proposals.

(B) LegCo Panel on Economic Development

23. We reported the outcome of the public consultation to the LegCo Panel on Economic Development (ED Panel) at its meeting on 26 March 2007 and 16 December 2008 respectively. Members in general considered a cross-sector competition law an appropriate way forward for implementing our competition policy and sustaining a competitive business environment. Some Members preferred heavier penalties such as criminal sanctions but others favoured our proposal and considered a civil regime appropriate. Moreover, feedback received in the consultation exercises generally supported a civil regime. Some Members suggested that there should be greater clarity and certainty in the prohibition provisions of the Bill. We briefed the ED Panel again on 30 March 2009 on our proposal to change the administrative model of the institutional framework of the Bill to a judicial enforcement model in light of comments from the public and some court judgments, as well as the revised legislative timetable of the Bill (from 2008-2009 to 2009-2010 legislative session). Members indicated understanding and support for the change and urged the Administration to introduce the Bill into the LegCo as soon as possible. A briefing on the core elements of the Bill and latest progress of the drafting was made to ED Panel at its meeting on 28 June 2010.

PUBLICITY

24. A LegCo Brief is issued on 2 July 2010 when the Bill is published in the Gazette. A spokesman will be available to handle the media and public enquiries.

BACKGROUND

25. The introduction of a new cross-sector competition law was recommended by the Competition Policy Review Committee (CPRC) in its report published in June 2006. The CPRC noted that whilst Hong Kong had a free and open economy with few market barriers, the small size of the local market had resulted in some sectors being dominated by a small number of big companies and concerns were frequently expressed about possible anti-competitive conduct. The CPRC considered that, to enable the authorities to investigate such cases more effectively and to impose sanctions, legislative backing is necessary. We conducted two public consultations in 2006 and 2008 to gauge public views on the competition law and wide community support was received. CE has also made a commitment in his 2009 Policy Address to introduce the Competition Bill within the 2009-2010 legislative session.

(4) If, after –

(a) the expiry of the period specified in the notice given under subsection (2); and

(b) considering any representations received within that period, the Commission is of the view that the decision should be rescinded, it may, by notice in writing given to each undertaking for which the decision provides immunity, rescind that decision.

(5) A notice of rescission given under subsection (4) must inform the undertakings of –

(a) the rescission and the reasons for the rescission;

(b) the date on which the determination to rescind the decision was made; and

(c) the date from which the rescission takes effect.

(6) If the Commission is satisfied that any information –

(a) on which it based its decision; and

(b) which was provided to it by a party to the agreement, was incomplete, false or misleading in a material particular, the date specified in a notice under subsection (5)(c) may be earlier than the date on which the notice is given.

(7) If a decision is rescinded under this section, each undertaking specified in the notice of rescission loses its immunity from action under this Ordinance, as from the date the rescission takes effect, with regard to anything done after that date.

(8) A rescission of a decision under this section may be made with regard to all of the undertakings for which the decision provides immunity or with regard to only one or more of them.

(2) A person other than the Commission is not entitled to make an application under subsection (1) by reason that any other person is engaged in or is proposing to engage in conduct that contravenes or would contravene the merger rule.

(3) An interim order remains in force for the period, being a period of not more than 180 days, specified in the order, but this period may be extended

(3) The result referred to in subsection (2)(c) is that the acquiring undertaking is in a position to replace the acquired undertaking, or to substantially replace the acquired undertaking, in the business or in part of the business concerned (as the case requires) in which the acquired undertaking was engaged immediately before the acquisition.

6. Matters to be considered in determining whether competition substantially lessened

Without limiting the matters that may be taken into account in determining whether a merger has, or is likely to have, the effect of substantially lessening competition in Hong Kong, the following matters may be taken into consideration in any such determination –

Explanatory Memorandum

The object of this Bill is to prohibit conduct that prevents, restricts or distorts competition in Hong Kong. The Bill also prohibits mergers that have the effect of substantially lessening competition in Hong Kong, but the merger rule applies only in relation to carrier licences issued under the Telecommunications Ordinance (Cap. 106).

2. The Bill also establishes a Competition Commission (“Commission”) to investigate and enforce the prohibitions against anti-competitive conduct and a Competition Tribunal (“Tribunal”) in which proceedings may be brought in relation to such conduct.

Part 1 – Preliminary

3. Clause 1 provides that the Secretary for Commerce and Economic Development may appoint a day for the Bill, when enacted (“the Ordinance”), to come into operation, by notice published in the Gazette. By virtue of section 20 of the Interpretation and General Clauses Ordinance (Cap. 1) this provision enables different days to be appointed for different provisions.

4. Clauses 3 to 5 provide for the application of the Ordinance to statutory bodies, to specified persons and to persons engaged in specified activities.

Part 2 – The conduct rules

5. Part 2 specifies the conduct that is prohibited by the Ordinance. There are 2 conduct rules.

6. Clause 6 sets out the first conduct rule. The first conduct rule prohibits undertakings from making or giving effect to agreements or decisions or engaging in concerted practices that have as their object or effect the prevention, restriction or distortion of competition in Hong Kong. Clause 6 also lists several examples of the sort of agreements to which the rule would apply.

7. Clause 21 sets out the second conduct rule. The second conduct rule prohibits undertakings that have a substantial degree of market power from engaging in conduct that has as its object or effect the prevention, restriction or distortion of competition in Hong Kong. Clause 21 also gives 2 examples of the sort of conduct to which the rule would apply.

8. Clauses 9 to 14 provide for a procedure under which undertakings may obtain a decision from the Commission as to whether or not an agreement, concerted practice or decision is excluded or exempt from the application of the first conduct rule or Part 2. If the Commission decides that the agreement, practice or decision is excluded or exempt, the undertakings concerned are immune from any action under the Ordinance with regard to that agreement, practice or decision. Clauses 24 to 29 provide for a similar procedure with respect to the application of the second conduct rule.

9. Clauses 15 to 20 empower the Commission to grant block exemptions from the first conduct rule with regard to categories of agreements, concerted practices and decisions.

10. Clause 30 excludes the cases listed in Schedule 1 from the application of the conduct rules. The exclusions provided in Schedule 1 are for agreements that contribute to improving production or distribution or to promoting technical or economic progress, for agreements or conduct that is necessary in order to comply with a legal requirement, and for undertakings that are entrusted by the Government with the operation of services of general economic interest. Clause 36 authorizes the Chief Executive in Council to amend Schedule 1 by order. Such orders are subject to positive vetting by the Legislative Council.

11. Clauses 31 to 33 authorize the Chief Executive in Council to grant exemptions from the conduct rules on public policy grounds or in order to avoid a conflict with international obligations. Such exemptions are to be made by order published in the Gazette and the orders must be laid on the table of the Legislative Council.

Part 3 – Complaints and investigations

12. Clause 37 provides that any person may lodge a complaint with the Commission against any undertaking that person considers has contravened, is contravening or is about to contravene a competition rule. Clause 38 provides for a procedure for doing this. The expression “competition rule” embraces both the conduct rules and the merger rule (See Schedule 7).

13. Clauses 39 to 50 give the Commission wide powers to carry out investigations in respect of contraventions of the competition rules. However the Commission may only exercise those powers if it has reasonable cause to suspect that a contravention has taken place, is taking place or is about to take place. These powers include the power to require the production of documents and information (clause 41), power to require a person to attend before it and give evidence (clause 42) and power to enter and search premises under a warrant issued by a judge of the Court of First Instance (clauses 48 and 50).

14. Clauses 51 to 55 create offences in relation to investigations, for the purpose of ensuring that an investigation may be carried out properly without hindrance.

Part 4 – Enforcement powers of Commission

15. Clauses 59 to 64 authorize the Commission to accept commitments from a person to take any action or to refrain from taking any action that the Commission considers will address its competition concerns about a possible contravention of a competition rule. If it accepts a commitment, the Commission must refrain from investigating or continuing to investigate the alleged contravention of a competition rule.

16. Clauses 65 to 77 provide for an infringement notice procedure as an alternative to bringing proceedings in the Tribunal for a contravention of a conduct rule. Under this procedure the Commission may issue an infringement notice to a person whom it has reasonable cause to believe has contravened a conduct rule. The notice will contain an offer not to bring proceedings in the Tribunal against that person in return for the person making a commitment to comply with certain specified requirements. These requirements may include paying a sum of up to $10,000,000, refraining from certain conduct, taking certain actions, and admitting to a contravention of the conduct rule in question. A person is not obliged to make a commitment to comply with the requirements of an infringement notice but if a commitment is made, the Commission may not bring proceedings in the Tribunal against the person, in relation to the alleged contravention.

17. Clauses 78 to 80 provide for a leniency procedure with regard to contraventions of the conduct rules. Under this procedure the Commission may agree with any person not to bring or continue proceedings under Part 6 against that person for a pecuniary penalty in respect of an alleged contravention in exchange for that person's co-operation in an investigation or in proceedings under the Ordinance. The Commission may make a leniency agreement on any terms it considers appropriate.

Part 5 – Review by Tribunal

18. Under clauses 81 to 87, a person or undertaking may apply to the Tribunal for a review of certain determinations (“reviewable determinations”) made by the Commission. On an application for review, the Tribunal may confirm or set aside the Commission's determination, in whole or in part. Where it sets aside a determination it may refer the matter back to the Commission for reconsideration. The Tribunal may also refer any question of law arising in a review to the Court of Appeal, by way of case stated.

Part 6 – Enforcement before Tribunal

19. Part 6 provides for the ways in which contraventions of the competition rules may be dealt with in the Tribunal. Clauses 90 and 91 provide that the Tribunal may, on the application of the Commission, impose a pecuniary penalty on a person who has contravened or been involved in a contravention of a competition rule. The persons who may be regarded as being “involved in a contravention” are defined in clause 89.

20. Clause 92 authorizes the Tribunal, either of its own motion or on application, to make orders, other than an order for a pecuniary penalty, against any person who has contravened or been involved in a contravention of a competition rule. On such an application, the Tribunal may make any order it considers appropriate, including any of the orders specified in Schedule 3. Clause 93 empowers the Tribunal to make interim orders pending its determination of an application made under clause 92.

21. Clauses 95 to 98 authorize the Tribunal, on the application of the Commission, to make orders in relation to mergers and in relation to arrangements that if carried into effect will result in a merger, if the merger contravenes or would contravene the merger rule. In relation to anticipated mergers, clause 96 authorizes the Tribunal to make interim orders to prevent any “pre-emptive action”. Orders made under these provisions may contain anything permitted by Schedule 4.

22. Clauses 99 to 103 make provision for the Tribunal to make a disqualification order prohibiting a person from being a director of a company or from otherwise participating in the affairs of a company. A disqualification order may be made against a person if that person has been a director of a company that has contravened a competition rule and the Tribunal considers that the person is unfit to be concerned in the management of a company.

Part 7 – Private actions

23. Part 7 provides for the private enforcement of the conduct rules. There are 2 options: a follow-on action (clauses 108 to 110), where conduct has been “determined” to be a contravention of a conduct rule, and a stand-alone action (clauses 111 to 113) in the absence of such a determination. What constitutes a “determination” for the purpose of a follow-on action is set out in clause 108(4).

24. Clauses 110 and 113 provide that the Tribunal may make any of the orders specified in Schedule 3.

25. Clauses 114 to 120 are procedural provisions relating to the hearing of private actions in the Tribunal. Clauses 119 and 120 authorize the Commission to intervene in private actions and participate in the proceedings.

Part 8 – Disclosure of information

26. Clause 123 requires the Commission to establish and maintain safeguards to prevent the unauthorized disclosure of confidential information in its possession. Clause 124 imposes a duty on “specified persons” not to unlawfully disclose confidential information and clauses 125 and 126 set out how confidential information may be lawfully disclosed.

Part 9 – Competition Commission

27. Part 9 establishes the Competition Commission and sets out its functions and powers and its status in relation to the Government. Schedule 5 contains constitutional, administrative and financial provisions relating to the Commission. Clause 132 provides personal immunity for anything done or omitted to be done in good faith by members of the Commission and others in the performance of functions under the Ordinance.

Part 10 – Competition Tribunal

28. Clause 133 establishes the Competition Tribunal as a superior court of record, on a par with the Court of First Instance. The Tribunal consists of the judges of the Court of First Instance by virtue of their appointment as such judges.

29. Clauses 135 to 139 provide for the appointment of a President and Deputy President of the Tribunal and make provision for resignation, vacancies and acting appointments with regard to the office of President.

30. Clause 140 authorizes the Tribunal to appoint suitably qualified persons (assessors) and to dispose of proceedings before it with the assistance of such assessors.

31. Clauses 141 and 142 set out the jurisdiction and powers of the Tribunal.

32. Clauses 143 to 152 make provision for the practice and procedure of the Tribunal.

33. Clause 153 provides for an appeal to the Court of Appeal against decisions of the Tribunal, including decisions as to the amount of any compensatory sanction or pecuniary penalty.

34. Clause 154 provides that every Registrar and any other officer of the High Court holds the corresponding office in the Tribunal and clause 155 provides that the Tribunal is to have a seal approved by the Chief Justice.

35. Clause 156 authorizes the Chief Judge of the High Court, after consulting the President of the Tribunal, to make rules prescribing and regulating the practice and procedure of the Tribunal and incidental matters.

Part 11 – Concurrent jurisdiction relating to telecommunications and broadcasting

36. Clause 158 provides that the Telecommunications Authority may perform the functions of the Commission under the Ordinance with respect to telecommunications licensees and similar persons specified in that clause.

Clause 159 makes similar provision for the Broadcasting Authority with respect to broadcasting licensees and similar persons specified in that clause.

37. The Commission, the Telecommunications Authority and the Broadcasting Authority are to prepare and sign a Memorandum of Understanding on how they are to co-ordinate the performance of their functions under the Ordinance (clause 161 and Schedule 6).

Part 12 – Miscellaneous

38. Clause 162 provides that Schedule 7, which incorporates the merger rule, is to have effect. The merger rule has very limited application in that it only applies in relation to carrier licensees under the Telecommunications Ordinance (Cap. 106).

39. Clause 163 allows the Commission to charge fees. The Chief Executive is authorized to make regulations for this purpose.

40. Clause 164 provides personal immunity for anything done or omitted to be done in good faith by public officers in the performance of functions under the Ordinance.

41. Clauses 165 and 166 make provision relating to the service of notices and other documents.

42. Clauses 167 to 169 prohibit any person from providing certain indemnities to officers, employees or agents of undertakings.

43. Clauses 170 to 174 make provision for offences.

44. Clause 172 makes it an offence for an employer to punish an employee in any way because that employee has provided material to the Commission or given or agreed to give evidence in any proceedings in the Tribunal brought by the Commission.

45. Clause 173 makes it an offence for anyone to obstruct the performance of functions under the Ordinance.

46. Clause 174 provides for additional liability when an offence is committed by a body corporate or a partner in a partnership.

47. Clause 175 applies Schedule 8 which contains consequential and related amendments to other enactments.

48. Clause 176 applies Schedule 9 which contains transitional and savings provisions. Clause 176 also empowers the Chief Executive to make regulations containing transitional and savings provisions.

Schedules

49. Schedule 1 provides the general exclusions from the conduct rules. These are for agreements that contribute to improving production or distribution or to promoting technical or economic progress, for agreements or conduct that must be made or engaged in to comply with a legal requirement, and for undertakings entrusted by the Government with the operation of services of general economic interest.

IMPLICATIONS OF THE PROPOSAL

(a) Financial and Civil Service Implications

The setting up of the Competition Commission (Commission) and the Competition Tribunal (Tribunal) would require additional resources. Having made reference to a number of local and overseas regulatory authorities and consulted the Judiciary, we estimate that the Commission would need to be supported by a full executive team including staff with professional legal, accounting and economics backgrounds.

2. The Tribunal is proposed to be presided by a Judge of the Court of First Instance (CFI) and every CFI judge will, by virtue of his or her appointment as CFI Judge, be a member of the Tribunal. To start off the Tribunal, at least one CFI judge, one additional Deputy Registrar of the High Court and some support staff to the Judge and registry staff would need to be added to the establishment. The Judiciary would also require additional resources to cope with the establishment needs of the Tribunal.

3. The additional resources required will be sought in accordance with established resources allocation procedures.

4. In respect of the exercise of concurrent jurisdiction by the Telecommunications Authority (TA) and the Broadcasting Authority (BA) in the telecommunications and broadcasting sectors respectively, no additional resources are expected to be incurred by the TA and the BA as at present they are already assuming a regulatory role in enforcing the competition-related provisions under the Telecommunications Ordinance and the Broadcasting Ordinance.

(b) Sustainability Implications

5. As far as sustainability implications are concerned, the guiding principle of achieving a competitive and prosperous market-based economy which provides the resources to meet the needs and aspirations of the population will be observed.

(c) Economic Implications

6. By providing a level-playing field for all, the Competition Bill would help contribute to the free play of market forces and enhance competition. It would also strengthen the implementation of our stated policy objective for competition, which is to enhance economic efficiency and free flow of trade, thereby reinforcing business confidence and benefiting consumer welfare. The economic benefits would likely be higher output, lower prices and more choices of products. Experience from other jurisdictions suggests that small businesses would not face a significant increase in compliance costs, given that they would unlikely be targeted by competition regulation. Large businesses might look to engage additional resources to help ensure compliance, especially at the initial stage. Multi-nationals, which already have to comply with competition regulatory regime elsewhere, should be able to adapt to the new legal regime. For the economy as a whole, any additional cost to businesses should be more than offset by the longer-term benefits of a more effective and credible competition regime.
